PROTEST GOP PROCEDURE AT CONVENTION

A formal protest from four Republican committeemen against procedure followed June 9 at the annual Republican convention at the court house was rejected this morning by Crosby N. Hartzell as clerk to the county board of elections on the grounds that the county elections board has no concern with internal party disputes.

The petition, bearing the names of Mrs. Elna R. Group, Tyrone Twp., who was elected as the committee's new vice chairman at the same convention, and three other committeemen, lodged a "formal protest" and asked the county board of elections to declare the two bylaw amendments approved June 9 as "null and void" because of the "illegal procedure" followed in their adoption.

The petition was presented by Homer Diveley, 243 Springs Ave., who is not a member of the committee. Hartzell returned the petition to Diveley who told a Gettysburg Times reporter he did not know whether a copy is being filed with the county GOP committee.

Other Signers

The other signers of the petition are Edgar L. Shearer, Straban Twp., who nominated Mrs. Group last week; William M. Milhimes, Straban Twp.; and Chester R. Topper, Gettysburg 1st Ward, Second Precinct, both of whom were identified as having been represented by proxies at the convention.

The protest notes that committee bylaws require that amendments be passed by a record vote of at least two-thirds of the members of the committee.

It is alleged that the votes on the amendments last week were taken on a show of hands with no voice or ballot vote recorded and with no opportunity for proxies to vote. The possibility that illegal votes could have been cast by non-members of the committee who were in the court room also was noted.

Pfeffer Has No Copy

The amendments would have required a secret ballot for the elections of chairman and vice chairman when there is a contest and would have limited the voting of proxies to committeemen from the same district as that in which the absent member resides.

Fred G. Pfeffer, GOP committee secretary, said at noon today no copy of the complaint has been received by him.

Mrs. Group was at Girl Scout camp today and could not be reached for any statement of further plans for the complaint.

Surfacing Of Square Finished

Traffic was routed through Lincoln Square this morning about 8 o'clock after the square had been closed off for a day and a night while traffic jams and delays developed on side streets.

Today the surfacing work by the State Highway Department workmen was moving ahead on Chambersburg St. Restricted traffic moved for much of the morning but as the new surface was extended, the street had to be closed and new traffic delays developed on Route 30.

Residents of side streets, particularly Stratton and Washington, reported disturbed slumbers while big trucks' air brakes and roaring motors made sleep difficult.

LITTLESTOWN MERGER VOTE TO BE DROPPED

No special meeting of the Adams County Board of School Directors will be called as a result of the action of the Littlestown Joint School Board opposing a merger vote this fall, County Superintendent of Schools C. P. Keefe said today.

Any formal action in connection with the merger vote will be taken up at the next regular meeting of the county board June 27. That will be a dinner meeting at the Hotel Gettysburg and a farewell session for Curtis S. Sponseller, New Oxford, who will retire as president of the board at the end of this month. His term as a school director ends in December.

Superintendent Keefe said "only a minimum of business" will be transacted that evening but it will include election of a new county board president.

Drop Littlestown Petition

Mr. Keefe said he expects the county board's petition to the county court to ask that the school merger question be put on the ballot in November in the voting districts comprising the Gettysburg and the New Oxford jointures will be filed Saturday morning by Attorney J. Francis Yake Jr., as counsel for the county board.

The petitions will not include the Littlestown jointure in the merger vote petition, he superintendent said.

The Littlestown Joint Board at its June meeting Tuesday evening reversed its stand on the proposed merger vote and agreed by a 13 to 4 vote that this fall is "not an opportune time" to hold the referendum and added the statement that the whole problem needs further study.

The merger proposal has had rough sledding since it was decided upon favorably by the joint boards of the Gettysburg, Littlestown and New Oxford jointures about six months ago. Originally aimed at the spring primaries, the referendum had to be postponed until fall because of delay in reaching agreement on some of the boundaries.

Another possible complication was seen in the recent filing of a petition by a group of west Mt. Pleasant Twp. residents asking the county court to set up an independent school district for them.

LIM BOARD TO MEET MONDAY IN CARLISLE

Representatives of the 81 Lutheran churches in the West Penn Conference will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in Carlisle to hear the final report of an 18-month study of older persons in the conference.

The occasion will be the fifth annual meeting of the board of control of the Lutheran Inner Mission, a welfare service operated by the conference for its members. Two laymen and the pastor of each of the 81 churches comprise the board membership.

Rev. John Harkins, Greencastle, board of control president, will preside. The meeting will be held in St. Paul's Church, Carlisle, with representatives present from Adams, Cumberland, Franklin, Fulton and Perry Counties.

Service For 3,000

Rev. G. Martin Ruess, Mechanicsburg, president of the board of directors of the Inner Mission, will report on the study, begun in 1958 and just completed. It was made for the purpose of providing a more effective ministry to the 3,000 persons in the conference aged 65 or over.

Rev. Ruess said the study has determined for the first time the needs and desires of the older members and the extent to which a program of resident institutional care through church homes is needed in the conference. Needs include five church homes in Adams, Cumberland and Franklin Counties, he said.

Data was collected from questionnaires filled out by the pastors on all members in their parish aged 65 or over and from personal interviews of a 10 per cent sampling of the old persons. It was processed by electronic computer techniques.

"Analysis of the data," said

IN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (AP) —The mighty U.S. 7th Fleet kept an unflagging vigil today, ready to meet any Chinese Communist show of force as President Eisenhower steamed north toward the Nationalist Chinese island fortress of Formosa.

Vice Adm. Charles D. Griffin, commander of the fleet, told newsmen the Chinese Reds "might well do something" in an attempt to further mar the President's Asian tour, already blighted by cancellation of his visit to Japan.

Eisenhower relaxed aboard the heavy cruiser St. Paul, flagship of the fleet, after his tremendous reception in the Philippines. He looked weary and grim as he boarded the cruiser in Manila Bay late Thursday night. It was no secret that he was unhappy that he was not going to Japan because of Communist-inspired mob violence.

Good Reception Ahead

But he could look forward to an

extremely warmhearted reception

from the Chinese Nationalists and similar outpourings of friendship in South Korea.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said Eisenhower will arrive in Korea on Sunday —three days earlier than originally planned. He will spend more than 24 hours there instead of the eight hours previously scheduled.

From Korea, the President's big jet will take him to Hawaii for several days and then on to Washington. Hagerty said the plane would refuel en route to Hawaii, but not in Japan. Presumably it will put down at Okinawa or Wake Island.

Helicopter Is Available

Weather permitting, a helicopter will whisk Eisenhower from the deck of the St. Paul to Taipei's Pine Hill Airport Saturday to start his 24-hour Formosa visit. If rain continues on Formosa, the St. Paul will land the President at the port of Keelung, and he will be driven the 15 miles into Taipei.

GUILT COMPLEX IS SUBJECT OF HEALTH GROUP

Effect of the guilt complex in building up neuroses that later lead to mental disturbances and the need for psychiatric treatment were discussed at the monthly meeting of the Adams County Mental Health Association at the Annie M. Warner Hospital Thursday.

Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, president of the association, presided. He also moderated a discussion of the subject at the close of the addresses by two speakers.

"The Concept of Guilt From the Psychiatrist's Point of View" was set by Dr. George H. Poor, a member of the staff of the Harrisburg State Hospital, and "The Concept of Guilt From the Theologian's Point of View" was presented by Rev. Francis Reimberger, of the faculty of the local seminary.

Origin Of Guilt

The early origins of guilt in the child are motivated in the parent-child relationship, Dr. Poor explained, and take various forms which result in hidden resentments, sometimes hate patterns, that built up through life to a point where mental disturbances can lead to tragedy unless skillful care and treatment through psychiatry can be obtained.

"Overabundance of attention and love in the first years of a child's life often create an inordinate sense of dependence on the part of a child. After the first year or so less security and love are sometimes evident as the novelty of parenthood wears off. In these subtle forces of change there often appear breaks in the behavior pattern, with resultant punishment. The child learns that only through compliance and

MONKEY CHASE IS SUCCESSFUL AT HILLCREST

Borough policemen and firemen were very, very dubious about answering a call to Hillcrest Place about 8 o'clock Thursday evening when residents there insisted there was a monkey swinging through the trees but when they checked they found there really was some "monkey business" afoot there.

A squirrel monkey, missing for two or three weeks from nearby "Fantasyland," had been spotted in the trees at Hillcrest and was causing quite a stir among the residents.

Kenneth Dick, proprietor of Fantasyland, was notified and after a quick call to a nearby zoo came to the scene with the advice that, if the monkey could not be caught, they should try stunning him with a BB gun.

Hunted With BB's

A gun was secured in the neighborhood and, after vainly chasing the little animal through the brush and trees, Borough Officer Clarence Cluck and the youthful owner of the gun started popping at "Mitzi" with the BB's. Raymond Fisher Jr., artist and sign painter at Fantasyland, was called into the chase with pole-climbers' spike attached to his feet. He finally made the capture when a tired and stunned or

PASTOR HELPS POLICE CURB CITY'S CRIME

By RUTH WOELNER
Reporter Flint Journal

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — That passenger you're apt to see now and then riding in a Genesee County sheriff's car is not a habitual criminal.

He is the Rev. Carl Hatch, associate pastor of the Flint Baptist Temple, answering the police calls with his friend, Deputy Sheriff George W. Boulter.

The Rev. Mr. Hatch has brought many persons into church as a direct result of the spot calls he has made on scenes of drunkenness, larceny and family squabbles.

Brings Reform
Three youths arrested for car larceny were urged by the Boulter-Hatch team to attend church. All three now show up regularly for services and one is thinking of studying for the ministry.

About half of the 15 young people planning to enter the ministry have had dealings with the police, says the young pastor.

The Flint Baptist Temple has 1,100 members and adult Sunday School regulars. Hundreds have been added to the list as a result of the sheriff-pastor setup.

"But we're not out to fill our church pews," insists the Rev. Mr. Hatch. "We're trying to keep the people out of jail."

One regular churchgoer is a recovered alcoholic who hit the bottle for 25 years before he received counseling from the minister.

Not all the case histories have had happy endings.

One man picked up on the police beat came to church for a while but today he's in prison.

Research Balloon Changes Course

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — That lost research balloon isn't lost anymore. But it's still a long way out of reach.

It disappeared over the Pacific early this week, heading for Hawaii. Cmdr. Malcolm Ross, its keeper, flew to Hawaii Thursday to await its arrival.

But the 40-story balloon surprised everyone—especially Ross—by doubling back toward California.

It was spotted by radar Thursday 189 miles off the Southern California coast, almost motionless at 67,000 feet.

The balloon is presumed to be carrying the load of radiation-detecting instruments it took aloft from Georgia, and was supposed to drop in Texas—but didn't.

MONKEY CHASE

stung "Mitzi" was caught in some brush.

Mitzi, usually friendly, was apparently pretty edgy about the matter and bit Fisher's hand and the captor was rushed off to a doctor's office for a tetanus shot. There's another "Mitzi" at large, Mr. Dick said. One squirrel monkey, the kind that was shot into space recently, escaped three weeks ago when his cage was being cleaned. He disappeared and a replacement was secured. Two weeks ago "Mitzi II" also escaped. The captured monkey, which Mr. Dick thinks is the original Mitzi, is safe and sound in his (or her) cage today and Mr. Dick asked if the other "Mitzi" is spotted that he be notified so the capture can be made without injury to the monkey or to any other captor.

Deer Is Lassoed Among Top Brass

This was the deer's destructive itinerary: Broke a window in St. Luke's Church; galloped through flower beds to a commercial garage; plunged through a large window into the business district; plunged through a glass door into the Susquehanna Valley television office; catapulted over a cashier's cage, breaking another window and wound up in the executive office.

LIM BOARD TO

Rev. Ruoss, "produced a composite pastors' image of older members and a composite self-image of those persons and their needs. The two taken together provide a substantial basis upon which to plan a conference program for the aging."

It was found that 43 per cent of the older members live in Adams County, 29 in Cumberland, 21 in Franklin, 4 in Perry and 3 in Fulton. It was also found, Rev. Ruoss said, that 300 persons need friends to care for them, 241 need financial assistance, 44 need help to find supplemental work. Nearly 40 per cent of the persons interviewed admitted declining health.

A 22-page printed report on the survey has been sent to all pastors, along with a 92-page supplementary report listing numerous detailed tabulations.

Dr. Tilberg assisted by the study, said to be the first of its kind ever conducted by any church on a conference-wide basis, were Dr. B. B. Maurer, Harrisburg, research director of the Central Pennsylvania Synod; Dr. Wilbur E. Tilberg, former dean of Gettysburg College, who conducted the personal interviews; Dr. Bertha Paulsen, professor of sociology at the local seminary; Sister Betty Amstutz of the synodical office, and others.

Monday's meeting will include the election of five directors. Retiring members are: Lloyd Walker, New Cumberland; W. Lester Davis, Biglerville; Mrs. Vesta Smith, York Springs; Miss Grace Bream, Chambersburg, and Rev. Lawrence Roller, Littlestown.

SWANK CASINO RAZED BY FIRE

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Fire broke out early today in El Rancho Vegas, one of this gambling city's plush casinos, and police said the building would probably be destroyed.

The swank hotel, located on the famed strip, caught fire about 5 a.m., police said.

"It looks like it's going to burn all the way down," officers said. "The flames are out of control."

The cause was not immediately known.

Big Names Featured
The casino, one of the earliest of the luxury resort hotels, is one of those which feature big name celebrities as entertainers.

The sheriff's office said there were no reports of any injuries so far. The hour at which the flames were discovered is customarily a busy one along the strip of casinos.

"Everything we've got in the way of fire equipment, both city and county, is out there fighting it," the sheriff's office said. "But it looks like it's gonna go."

STOCKS LIVELY

NEW YORK (AP)—A few wide movers, both up and down, highlighted an irregular but lively stock market early this afternoon.

Brokers noted that early gains in some of the specialties which have attracted so much attention this week were being pared or, in some cases, replaced by slight losses. Blue chip issues again were mostly lower by fractions and the over-all list showed narrow changes in both directions.

Newly rechristened Standard Kollsman (formerly Standard Coil) held a gain of around a point. Universal Match was about unchanged after losing an earlier upside edge.

DIEHL TALKS ABOUT WHEAT

The Carroll's Tract advisory council met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin F. Bream, Gettysburg R. 2, on Wednesday evening. John Diehl led the discussion on the subject "What Kind of Wheat Program." He said that, if farmers did not harvest a bushel of wheat this year, there would be enough surplus wheat to supply markets until well after the 1961 harvest. Under the present law the national allotment cannot be reduced below 55 million acres. As long as this exists together with the nonquota acreage under the 15-acre exemption, the situation cannot improve, according to the leader.

The group discussed three wheat plans before Congress this year. The Poage Bill would establish nationwide marketing orders for all farm commodities; wheat allotments would be cut 60 per cent by law and farmers would be forced to retire at least 10 per cent of their tillable land.

The Wheat Certificate Plan would provide a "primary use" quota averaging 12.1 acres per farm. If the price of "primary use" wheat drops below 90 per cent of parity, the CCC would be required to purchase enough to stabilize the market. Under this plan farmers would be required to retire 10 per cent of their land without payment.

The Farm Bureau's program would take away acreage allotments, lower the price support based on 120 per cent of the price of corn and would expand the conservation reserve program.

According to Diehl, very little wheat is now being fed to livestock due to the high price in relation to other grains. "The best way to dispose of our wheat is to feed it to livestock since the American people are eating all they want and wheat exports are as high as they will probably go," the speaker said.

The next meeting of the council will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Diehl, Fairfield R. 1, July 20 at 8 p.m. with Calvin F. Bream discussing "Services for Members of the Pennsylvania Farmers' Association."

NEW YORK (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy says if he is elected president he may name Adlai E. Stevenson and Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. to high governmental posts.

Interviewed Thursday night on NBC-TV's "The Jack Paar Show," Kennedy praised the abilities of both Stevenson and Roosevelt.

Kennedy said he expects to win the Democratic presidential nomination, but not on the first ballot.

HOOFERS REST AFTER SETTING WALKING MARK

NEW YORK (AP)—Two doughty British sergeants strode into New York today after hoofing it across the United States in 67 days—10 less than a transcontinental mark set in 1910.

The sergeants, Patrick Moloney, 34, and Mervyn Evans, 33, emerged from the Lincoln Tunnel into Manhattan at 9:58 a.m., maintaining their cross-country stride of 4 1/2 miles an hour.

They entered the 8,216-foot long tunnel—which connects New Jersey with Manhattan under the Hudson River—shortly after their final night's lodging at Newark.

Was Rough Trip
"We're in good condition but it's a rough trip," they said before turning in Thursday night at a motel by Newark Airport.

Earlier they had their first haircut since leaving Wyoming, presented by Larry Pecorardo, a Scotch Plains barber. "We like our hair long," said Evans. "It keeps the sun off our necks."

Dr. Moore Lags
The sergeants left San Francisco April 12. Another transcontinental trekker, Dr. Barbara Moore, a British veterinarian who is the wife of sculptor Henry Moore, started the same day as the sergeants but has fallen behind. She is in Indiana. She was hospitalized briefly after being struck by a car earlier this week but is on her way again.

The sergeants, sponsored by a British shoe firm, are on leave from the Royal Air Force paratroops. They plan to return to duty.

"I don't think I'll do any walking," said Evans.

Avalanches Bar Recovery Of Dead

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — The eternal snow of an Alaska peak will be a permanent grave for 13 of the 14 persons who died when a Pacific Northern Airlines plane plunged into 9,550-foot Mt. Gilbert Tuesday.

The airline and government agencies said Thursday no effort will be made to recover the bodies or the mail the plane was carrying because of the danger of avalanches.

The body of an unidentified woman was brought down from the mountain, 60 miles east of Anchorage, by a rescue team Wednesday.

CUTS TOUR TO ADDRESS U. N.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)

—Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir cut short a fund-raising tour today to fly to New York to defend her country in U. N. debate on the Adolf Eichmann case. She spoke Thursday night in Milwaukee for Israeli bond sales. She cancelled similar engagements in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Baltimore, Boston and Montreal.

Mrs. Meir is expected to address the U. N. Security Council next Wednesday when it takes up Argentina's complaint that the secret transfer of Eichmann from Buenos Aires violated Argentine sovereignty.

Israel had made clear she is going ahead with plans to try the former Nazi official on charges of much of the responsibility for the extermination of millions of Jews during World War II.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Heiges, Dougherty Win
Nomination in Battle For Burgess:
Former Burgess C. A. Heiges won the Republican nomination for Burgess in a three-way
"sticker" campaign in Tuesday's balloting in Gettysburg while the Democratic nomination went to Charles B. Dougherty on the basis of unofficial figures compiled Tuesday night as the returns reached the county commissioners' office at the court house. Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer, in whose behalf a "sticker" campaign was launched Monday morning, placed second in the Republican balloting and ran third for the Democratic nomination. Pfeffer ends his four-year term as Burgess at the end of this year.

County Library Membership
To Go Over The Top: That the membership campaign of the Adams County Free Library Association is approaching its minimum goal of 3,000 members was disclosed at the June meeting of the association's board of directors Monday evening at the court house.

Sheely Sets New Record: What may be a new highlight in political balloting in Pennsylvania was recorded in Adams County
in Tuesday's primary. Judge W.
C. Sheely, a lifelong Democrat, seeking re-election to the office
of President Judge of the Adams-Fulton courts, and unopposed, piled 643 more Republican votes than he did Democratic, although a small unknown faction sought,
through circulars, to run an opposition Republican candidate who had steadfastly refused to run.

3 Countians Given Bonds For FFA Work: The Sears Roebuck Foundation annual dinner and presentation of awards for the Future Farmers of America was held Monday night at the York YMCA with A. M. Squair, manager of the York store, presiding.
A $100 war bond was presented to Horace Waybright, of Gettysburg, for Adams County; $50 war bond to Robert Kline, New Oxford, and a $25 war bond to Charles Lighty, of East Berlin, all members of the FFA. Similar awards were made to York and Lancaster countians.

Makes Solo Flight: D. Lake Reaver, 57, Gettysburg, made a perfect three-point landing at the Gettysburg airport Sunday evening at the end of this first solo flight.

E. J. Clapsaddle is in Honolulu:
Earl J. Clapsaddle, 23, chief yeoman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory J. Clapsaddle, of Gettysburg, is now on duty as captain's writer for Lt. Comdr.
John A. McFadden, acting commanding officer of the Navy's largest air transport operating squadron.

Graduates From Medical School: William C. Waltemyer,
Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. W. C.
Waltemyer, Springs Ave., received the M. D. degree at graduation exercises conducted Thursday at 11 o'clock by the Temple university Medical school in the university auditorium. At the same time he received his com-

WHY NOT TAKE UP BOWLING?

For some time now I have been interested in watching the progress the game of bowling has been making across the nation.
Several years ago I took up with this delightful recreation by working with the small pins, then the big ones. I liked the large pins best, so worked for several years until I made many a record for myself.

I liked the sound of the big balls, sweeping off the full count of pins. Great strides are being made, and I look for this game
to reach its greatest popularity especially since one of the enthusiasts invented a machine to sweep
the alley clean after each throw.

For health, enjoyable competition, and fun, the game of bowling is destined to take high rating among athletic games. Both men and women can help to perfect the sport, as it is now. It's the latest recreation of Hollywood which helps to keep the big balls rolling. Beyond the fact that bowling is interesting and highly competitive, it is a game of skill and watchful waiting—waiting for all the pins to be swept from the alley each time! The game owes to Fred Schmidt a great debt for inventing the device which does away with the set-up boys that had come to be a serious problem.
I like the game.

Happy bowling!
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "I Hope You Pray"

SPLENDID BUSINESS METHODS

It is good business now to be Considerate of men that toil,
To keep their spirits just as free
As iron parts that squeak for oil;
To see that they aren't being ground
By stern conditions and unjust,
For by the newer light we've found
That human souls, neglected,
rust.

It is good business to be kind;
Good business to be always fair.
It has not paid men to be blind
To them that in the struggle share.

The teller who is worth his pay,
Who never turns out work
that's bad,
Is he who comes from day to day
A self-respecting soul and glad.

The glory of this age is not
The magic things its minds
have wrought,
But in the way that men have got Away from sordid, selfish thought.

It is the broader, wider view
That men have caught of daily
strife;
The splendid business methods
now
Considerate are of human life.

Mansfield State College Plans Curriculum Revision

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa. (AP) —Mansfield State College has received approval to set up a two-year "all-purpose" curriculum to meet mounting college applicants. Mansfield becomes the first of Pennsylvania's 14 state colleges to offer a general curriculum similar to a junior college. The Board of State College Presidents and Dr. Charles H.
Boehm, state superintendent of public instruction, approved
the program Thursday during a meeting at Slippery Rock State College.

The program will go into effect this September.

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa. (AP) —
Mansfield State College has disclosed plans for a revision of its curriculum which would make it a combination junior-teachers college.

Dr. Lewis W. Rathgeber, president of the northeastern Pennsylvania College, was to place his proposal before the board of presidents of the 14 state-owned state colleges at a meeting at the Slippery Rock State College campus
later today.

If approved by the board, it would be a major development in the history of the 14 institutions, which last year were granted permission by the Legislature to drop the word "teachers" from their titles.

One Of Oldest Mansfield, in Tioga County, is one of the oldest of the group.
Supporters of the legislative action envisioned that the colleges eventually would expand to become liberal arts as well as teacher colleges.

Rathgeber's plan, to go into effect at Mansfield in September, would offer two years of general
academic courses. After that, students desiring to become teachers would continue at Mansfield for a final two years of specialized training. Those desiring to earn a general academic (bachelor of Arts) degree would transfer to a regular liberal arts college.

Technical Training Too
This is approximately the plan
the 14 colleges presented to Gov.
Lawrence's Committee on Education two weeks ago. However, that plan would also have the colleges offer technical training in the first two-year period.

The groundwork for the revision
has been going on for the past three years, Rathgeber said in an interview. The college's departmental structure has been expanded and the faculty developed in anticipation of the change.

"It is our hope that Mansfield

State College may eventually be able to offer four year, all-purpose education along with the teacher education which is our main purpose," Rathgeber said.

Would Help State
"The extension of some, or all, of the 14 state colleges into all-
purpose educational institutions would help Pennsylvania meet the flood of college applicants expected in the next decade," he added.

Rathgeber said he met with Department of Public Instruction officials earlier this spring to solicit their approval of the plan. The department's chief concern in the matter, he said, was that the revision would not affect the requirements for the degree of bachelor of science in education.

Mansfield now has 850 students.
The enrollment expected in September, Rathgeber said, is 1,020.

CHICAGO (AP) — Heads of 11
nonoperating railroad unions, unhappy with contract recommenda-

board, have asked the carriers to resume bargaining talks.

The union chiefs said Thursday
they felt wage talks should be re-

wage increase and the railroad's counter-proposal for a 15-cent pay

Eagle Owner Heads Group To Build Harness Racing Track In Residential Area

By LOUIS UCHITELLE
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Millionaire James P. Clark, board chairman and one of the owners of the Philadelphia Eagles, wants to plant a harness racing track in a quickly growing residential area. He announced plans Thursday for a 12 million dollar track in the northeast corner of the city, straddling the Bucks County line.

Early this year another group announced its intention to build a harness race track with pari-mutuel betting in Philadelphia.

Law Permits Four
Under a 1959 state law, Pennsylvania can have up to four pari-mutuel harness tracks, placed only in counties which vote approval. Six eastern counties gave this approval in referendum votes at the April 26 primary.

Clark told a news conference he heads a group of five men who have spent several hundred thousand dollars to option 640 acres of land for the track. Two hundred of the acres are in Bucks County.

The five men include Eugene Mori, widely known as the operator of Garden State Park Race Track in nearby Camden, N.J., and Hialeah Race Course in Miami, Fla. Until recently he owned Tanforan track in San Francisco.

Mori Is Director
Mori will be a director of a corporation which the five men plan to form in a day or so. Clark will be president. Stock will not be offered publicly, he said.

In addition to being board chairman of the Eagles, Clark is president of a trucking company and chairman of the Finance Committee of Philadelphia's Democratic party.

Two other members of the group sponsoring the track are officers of the Eagles organization. They are Frank L. McNamee, president of the National Football League club, and Francis W. Sullivan, a lawyer, a director of the club and trustee of the NFL players benefit fund.

No Grid-Track Connection
Clark said there would be no connection between the football team and the race track.

The fifth member of the group is Vincent Gaughan, a 41-year-old Buffalo, N.Y., lawyer, is executive secretary of Harness Tracks of America.

The 12 million dollar track would be named Liberty Bell Park. It would have a five-eighths of a mile racing oval and seat 30,000 persons and with parking space for 12,000 cars.

Racing would be at night. Clark said the next step was to apply to the State Harness Racing Commission as soon as possible for a franchise. If a franchise is granted, he said, some work can get under way, although much depends on the outcome of a case in Dauphin County Court. The case is a test of the constitutionality of the harness racing law.

7 LBS. TO HELP PATTERSON IN TITLE FIGHT

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEWTON, Conn. (AP)—Will six or seven more pounds help or hurt Floyd Patterson in his return bout Monday with heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson?

"It's going to help," said Patterson today. "I'm hitting harder and I think I'm just as fast at 183 or 189 pounds as at 182."

The 25-year-old ex-champion scaled 182 pounds a year ago when he was dethroned by the 196-pound Johansson on a seven-knockdown third-round technical knockout. This time Floyd said he will hit 188 or 189.

Johansson Same Weight
Johansson said he will weight the same 196.

Johansson doesn't think the added weight will be of any benefit to the challenger. The Swede classifies Floyd as a sort of ugly duckling—neither a light heavy nor a full-fledged heavy. Ingo is supremely confident that his thunderbolt right will take care of a heavier — and in his opinion, a slower — opponent with just as much ease.

There's no doubt that Patterson is aiming to pack more power into his wallop. He didn't get a chance to unlimber any big guns in the 1959 massacre. If he does this time, he is counting on the extra meat and muscle to beat down the champ.

Winds Up Today
The solemn-faced ex-champ planned to wind up his boxing preparations with a two-round session late this afternoon although he said "I'm definitely ready now. I just want to maintain my condition."

Johansson finished his boxing Wednesday. He says he likes to rest five days before a fight "so the strength and power can flow into my body."

BIG LITTLE BALL LEAGUE

Three unearned runs in the bottom of the fifth inning gave the Aero Oil a 3-0 win over the Elks in a make-up contest in the Big Little League, Thursday evening.

The Oilmen scored on a hit batsman to Bream, a walk to Sadler, Riley's fielder's choice and two costly Elks' errors.

Jim Davies topped the game's hitters with a pair of singles for two at bats. Gary Fair and Barry Sease were the only Elks to record hits given up by the two Aero Oil hurlers.

Only one out was made by an outfielder for both teams in the excellent pitchers' duel. Gary Fair went the distance for the Elks, giving up four hits, striking out seven and walking three. He is charged with his third loss against one win. Larry Eckert started for the Aero Oil with Jim Davies coming on in the fourth. Davies receives credit for the win since Eckert did not pitch the required number of innings. It was Davies' second win in three decisions.

Athletes must compete in riding, fencing, pistol shooting, swimming and cross country running, in that order.

GETTYSBURG LITTLE LEAGUE

Ronnie Redding, one of the smallest of Little Leaguers, rocked back on the mound and fired nine strikes in 13 pitches to retire the side with bases loaded in the sixth inning and guided the Glenn L. Bream team to its sixth straight win as they edged the Elks squad 3-2, Thursday evening in a Little League game.

Redding had tossed a one-hit shut-out for five innings, but in the bottom of the sixth ran into trouble. Sam Teeter, Eric Maitland and Kevin Hetrick lined singles to right center and Don Rohrbaugh got on via a fielder's choice allowing another run to score. With the bases loaded and one out, the young Bream hurler retired the side to gain his second win in as many decisions.

The Breammen collected only three runs on eight hits off Eric Maitland, Elks' pitcher. The winners tallied once in the second and scored again in the top of the fourth on a lead-off home run by Mike Herring, his fourth of the season. Bream's crossed the plate with the eventual winning run in the sixth when John Heiser singled, Herring got on by way of a fielder's choice and advanced to third on Charlie Raffensperger's single. Tom Spahr's sacrifice fly ball to center drove in Herring.

Raffensperger and Steve Miller topped the winner's order with a pair of hits each while Kevin Hetrick collected the same number for the Elks.

KANSAS CITY BELTS YANKS; ORIOLES WIN

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
When the Kansas City A's finally decided to stop the nonsense, they really did a job. They belted the Yankees 9-1 Thursday night, blocking their shot at the American League lead.

It was the A's first victory over the Yankees in nine tries—and their first over southpaw Whitey Ford in seven years.

With the Yankee defeat, Baltimore bounced back into first place by 1½ games over New York and Cleveland, tied for second. The Orioles had beaten the Indians 3-2 in 11 innings on Ron Hansen's home run in an afternoon game.

Chisox Beat Senators
The Chicago White Sox clug to fourth place, 2½ games behind, by whipping Washington 10-4. Fifth-place Detroit defeated Boston 6-5 in 10 innings after Ted Williams' 499th home run gave the Red Sox a tie in the ninth.

Left-hander Bud Daley's four-hit pitching made it a breeze for the A's who had lost 14 in a row to Ford since August 22, 1953. Daley, top winner in the AL and tied with Pittsburgh's Vern Law and St. Louis' Larry Jackson as the winningest in the majors, struck out four and walked four while squaring his lifetime mark against New York at 4-4. The Yankees' run came in the second inning, when a walk to Ford forced it home.

Ford (2-5), losing three in a row for the second time in a nine-year career, was beaten in a two-run first. Bob Johnson's double, infield hits by Hank Bauer and Dick Williams and a single by Norm Siebern, did it. The A's, who were 0-13 against Ford since their shift to Kansas City, then chased the little lefty on Johnson's two-run single as they scored five in the seventh.

Orioles Take Series
Baltimore won the series at Cleveland three games to one after blowing a 2-0 lead in the ninth. Jack Fisher (5-4) gave up seven hits, losing the shutout and the lead in the ninth on Johnny Romano's home run, Tito Francona's double and a two-out pinch single by Chuck Tanner. Barry Latman (1-1) was the loser in relief.

The White Sox picked up four unearned runs in the third, blew a 4-2 lead and then beat ex-pat Ray Moore (1-2) with a sixth-inning run. Earl Battey and Bob Allison each hit two-run homers for the Senators. Gerry Staley (8-2), who pitched three hitless innings of mop-up relief, was given the victory although Dick Donovan was the pitcher of record when the White Sox cracked a 4-4 tie in the sixth.

Consecutive one-out singles by pinch-hitter Sandy Amoros, Eddie Yost and Frank Bolling beat Boston for Tiger reliever Dave Sisler (4-2). Williams' home run, seventh of the season, came off lefty reliever Hank Aguirre.

Hurled 3 Hours Before Withdrawal
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"Shucks, no. I wasn't tired," drawled Vinegar Bend Mizell.

But the Pirates' tall, gangling southpaw had his tongue in his cheek as he said it.

Now 2-1 with the Pirates since he was traded by the St. Louis Cardinals, Mizell threw 166 pitches Thursday before he was taken out in the ninth as his teammates beat San Francisco 10-7.

It was a big victory, giving a four-game lead over the second-place Giants.

"Wilmer had pitched three hours and two minutes when I went out and got him," said Buc manager Danny Murtaugh. "He yost in a day's work for us."

Taneytown Needs Win Sunday For First Half Title

The first half play in the Penn-Mar Baseball League will be concluded with Sunday afternoon's games.

Taneytown, leading the league by one game, can wrap up the first half championship with a victory over invading Blue Ridge Summit. Fairfield plays at Emmitsburg in the other game. A triple tie for first place would result if Blue Ridge and Fairfield turned in victories.

The South Penn League has four games scheduled Sunday at follows:
Arendtsville at Greenmount
Cashtown at Bonneville
Brushtown at Haverstown
Harney at Mummaburg

Eastern League

Could be the sight of Springfield's 1959 Eastern League pennant flowing in the centerfield breezes made the Williamsport Grays mad.

League President Tommy Richardson delivered the flag Thursday night and after the raising ceremonies, the Grays promptly went out and handed the Giants a doubleheader loss, trimming their lead to a half game. The scores were 7-6 and 2-1.

Catcher Tim Talton's three run homer in the fifth pushed Springfield to a 6-2 lead in the seven-inning opener but the Grays rallied for three runs in the sixth and two more in the seventh. Ed Kelly (2-1) was the winner in relief. Corky Johnson, who was seeking his 10th victory in a row, escaped the defeat. Reliever Joe Blasko (3-1), who gave up the last two Williamsport runs, was charged with the loss.

Two unearned runs in the fourth inning of the nightcap proved the undoing of Springfield starter Gerry Thomas (3-3) as the Giants suffered their fourth straight defeat and ninth loss by one run. Norm Camp (5-2) gave up only four hits in gaining the victory, Williamsport's eighth in its last nine games.

In other games Reading, sparked by a triple by Bill Wyatt and a homer by Ken Kryanak, defeated Allentown 5-3 and Lancaster beat Binghamton 6-2 behind Don

Appeal Issued By Salvation Army

A call for hammers and saws and all other kinds of building tools has been received from the stricken area in Chile, it was announced here today by Roland W. Keller, divisional service extension director of the Salvation Army. Thousands of victims of earthquake and tidal waves in a number of areas in Chile face the rigors of winter without any kind of shelter. They are in urgent need of tools, flashlights, and prefabricated housing units, so that they can construct their own emergency shelters. Samuel H. Higginbotham, local chairman, has designated his business establishment at 16 S. Queen St., as the collection depot for these critical items as well as money to be used to purchase such items. Contributions will be forwarded to the central depot of the Salvation Army for immediate shipment to Chile. The Salvation Army has already shipped several tons of winter clothing, 1,000 blankets and monetary contributions to the disaster area. Further shipments will be made shortly. Reports from Chile indicate that Salvation Army units there were on the job in Concepcion as soon as the first earthquake occurred and have continued to do relief work in all stricken areas despite the fact that their own quarters in some communities have been destroyed.

Mrs. Stewart has made a life-long hobby of collecting pitchers from all over the world. One of her pitchers, of white English pottery, was among the first articles with which she set up housekeeping after her marriage to the late John R. Stewart in 1899. Now her collection includes pitchers from Damascus, Athens, Rome and nations around the world.

Socialist Leader Stabbed During Rioting In Tokyo

By GENE KRAMER
TOKYO (AP)—A Socialist leader was stabbed today as 20,000 students massed outside Japan's Parliament building for new demonstrations against alliance with the United States. Premier Nobusuke Kishi's ruling conservatives again defiantly announced they would go ahead with ratification of the U.S.-Japan defense treaty. Afterward, a government spokesman said, elections will be called at which the conservatives will seek a mandate from the Japanese people for new laws to curb communist violence.

Jotaro Kawakami, a leader of the Socialist opposition to the Japanese-American treaty, was stabbed in the shoulder outside a building in the Parliament compound by an extreme rightist. The wound apparently was not fatal, but Kawakami fell to the ground, bleeding profusely. His assailant was turned over to the police. The student mob massed outside Parliament for a new effort to bring down Kishi's government and smash the security treaty was told over loudspeakers of the attack.

"Kawakami's injury is not serious," the announcement said. "There is no danger to his life." There was a possibility the incident would become a new rallying point for the leftist front backing the riotous campaign against Kishi. The student mob massed outside Parliament for a new effort to bring down Kishi's government and smash the security treaty was told over loudspeakers of the attack.

Police Are Stoned
The death of a girl during the mass assault on Parliament Wednesday has already become a symbol for the anti-Kishi forces. The mood of the students did not turn ugly until night fell, however. Then some threw stones at po-

GUILT COMPLEX

Anxiety in the child results during this punishment for misbehavior; he realizes then that forgiveness can only be bought with punishment. Hostility accompanies a sense of guilt in cases of punishment and the child develops abnormal reactions.

Often among younger adults who require mental care, Dr. Poor said, an abnormal sense of guilt can be traced to the early years. "Early goals have failed and an excessive feeling of guilt and hostility has built up in the patient's attitudes toward life," he said.

Regrets Situation

Dr. Reinberger said he regretted that "ministers of the gospel were not taking more part in the treatment of the mentally ill." He cited a session of the Academy of Religion and Mental Health, whose participants comprised 90 per cent scientists and 10 per cent ministers.

In his approach to the "guilt concept," Dr. Reinberger said, "the basic relation is a matter of faith. The essential development of faith in the child is of prime consideration. His state of being, or existence, imposes an obligation of faith in God."

"In religion the 'guilt concept' is the result of sin, as the Bible views sin—a broken relationship. Man must stand a sinner in this broken relationship—his rebellion against God. Man often places himself at the center of this relationship, not God; this to the theologian is sin, as we face it."

Must Be Free

"In his religious relationship man must be free. He must be free to realize there is another relationship from that in which he now exists. Man is both creature and creative," he said.

The next meeting of the association will be held August 18 at the hospital.

Dr. Reaser announced that John Wallace, who has been chairman of program planning, is leaving for Chicago to continue graduate study. Rev. Edward T. Elliott, pastor of the Lower Marsh Creek Presbyterian Church, will succeed him as chairman.

Rev. Week Present
Rev. Lamont Week, pastor of the Mennonite Church, Fairfield, who was on the program committee, is leaving to take a charge in Kansas, it was announced.

Dr. William Phillips, area director of the Pennsylvania Mental Health Association, was a guest at the meeting and spoke briefly on some phases of the work.

Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler gave a brief report of the trip a group from the Gettysburg association made to the state hospital in Harrisburg.

About 10 psychology majors from Gettysburg College attended the meeting. Dr. Jack Shand, Prof. Lewis Frank and Mrs. William W. Wood, of the psychology faculty, were also present.

Daniel Skelly has been named director of publicity for the association.

TWO BISHOPS ELECTED BY METHODISTS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Delegates to the quadrennial meeting of the 12-state Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference of the Methodist Church resume balloting today for election of two more bishops.

Two already have been elected—the Rev. Dr. Fred G. Holloway, president of Drew University, Madison, N.J., and the Rev. Dr. W. Vernon Middleton of Philadelphia.

They won their new titles Thursday night as the denomination's College of Bishops announced, meantime, it had approved the delegates' earlier recommendation that West Virginia be established as a separate Episcopal area.

Charleston was designated by the college as the Episcopal seat for the new area. Assignment of a bishop will be announced later. West Virginia previously had been a part of the Pittsburgh area.

Fifth Ballot

Drs. Holloway and Middleton were elected bishops on the fifth ballot cast at the meeting. Each nominee must receive at least 60 per cent of the votes of those delegates present and voting.

A sixth ballot was cast at Thursday night's session but the votes were sealed for counting today.

On the fifth ballot, Dr. Ralph Ward, pastor of Mt. Lebanon Methodist Church, Pittsburgh, received 140 votes and the Rev. Dr. James W. Matthews, New York City, 146. Others in the running are the Rev. Dr. Harold Case, president of Boston University, and the Rev. Dr. G. Ernest Thomas of the Methodist evangelism staff, Nashville, Tenn., a former pastor at Haddonfield, N.J.

Election of the new bishops was made necessary by the retirements of three present bishops and also because a fourth will be needed to head the newly created West Virginia area.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse, Mrs. Glenn E. Crouse and Mrs. Walter F. Crouse will serve as hostesses at the June meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Kingsdale Fire Company at 8 p.m. on Monday at the engine house, along the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd.

JAYCEES TO DINE

A fun day circus will be planned at the second June dinner meeting of the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce on Monday at 6:30 p.m. in the Starlight Room at Dutterer's, S. Queen St. Through arrangements with Circus Amusements Inc., the circus will be held on Saturday, June 25, from 2:30 to 8:30 p.m. on the community playground. There will be rides on the elephant safari, pony and fire engine.

"WAIT AND SEE" ATTITUDE ON JAP RELATIONS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials said today the United States will do everything possible to minimize the damage to U.S.-Japanese relations resulting from Tokyo's riotous uproar over a new security pact and dramatized by cancellation of President Eisenhower's visit.

But for the moment no one in authority here seems to have any clear idea of what is possible. The prevailing attitude is "wait and see" what the Japanese do next.

Washington's hope is that Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi will be able to remain in power long enough to complete his country's ratification of the new U.S.-Japanese defense treaty. That will occur automatically on Sunday, Japanese time—Saturday, Washington time.

Despite the uproar in Japan, the U.S. Senate was expected to vote ratification of the treaty by Saturday—perhaps even late today.

If both countries complete ratification, Washington authorities hope the political turmoil in Japan will subside. It will then be possible, they hope, to take a long and serious look at where the two countries actually stand in their relationship.

But at present there are vitally important unknown factors as officials here see the situation. One of them is the extent to which the violent demonstrations of recent days have set in motion Japanese political forces hostile to close ties with this country.

Another serious concern is with the practical effectiveness of the alliance with Japan, especially as it bears on the continued presence there of U.S. air and naval bases, if the hostility proves to be widespread.

Balanced against such considerations is the conviction of U.S. leaders that most of the people in Japan are basically friendly to the United States and recognize that their economic well-being in recent years has been based largely on extensive commercial relations between the two countries. The United States is Japan's best customer and Japan is the second largest purchaser of American goods.

"Thank God For Homes, Family Life"

By REV. DR. PAUL L. REASER
Pastor, St. James Lutheran Church

"WHAT GOD HATH JOINED TOGETHER"

This is the month of June, and June is the month of brides. Brides imply weddings, and weddings bring the establishment of new homes and family life.

Have you ever stopped to re-examine the meaning and the foundations of the marriage institution? Some clever — or godless — persons occasionally declare that marriage is old-fashioned and the home is on the way out! But these would-be prophets return to the dust from whence they come, while the home has endured since the Garden of Eden.

However, we cannot take a wholesome, healthy marriage for granted. Just as the owner of a house will examine the foundations and the floors, the mortar and brick of the walls, the slate and shingles on the roof, and make repairs when necessary, so does it become necessary to examine carefully the foundations and walls of marriage and family life.

"Made in Heaven"
Sometimes we hear that "marriages are made in heaven." This is not scripture, but it can be deduced from the words of our Lord when He was commenting on marriage and divorce. You will find it in Matthew 19:6 and Mark 10:9. "What God hath joined together, let not man put asunder." If God joins a couple in holy matrimony, the marriage can be truly said to have been made in heaven.

When we see among our relatives and friends those couples who have been happily married for many years, when we observe the ocean of loyalty and devotion which they demonstrate to the rest of us, we are inclined to thank God for these lives in our midst. Such couples demonstrate this text, "What God hath joined together, let not man put asunder."

Mixed Marriages
One of the real problems in our modern life is the mixed marriage. It is important to recognize this, even though what we say in June will not determine whom John may meet and fall in love with next November!

"Mixed marriages" may refer to mixed religious, mixed national or racial heritage. It may involve real differences in cultural, educational or economic backgrounds. No such human difference is an absolute barrier to happiness in marriage. Yet any of these differences can become a bone of contention, a cause of discord.

Careful estimates point out that of the marriages in this country of differences in religious training — Protestant and Roman Catholic, Christian and Jewish — about one third get along in harmony and understanding, one third of such marriages break up, and the other third just manage to stay together. Most clergymen and marriage counselors urge that kind of partnership in marriage where there is mutual interest and conviction and respect.

Need Love, Forgiveness
What kills the good atmosphere in a home? Is it not harsh words, unfair judgments, the lack of affectionate fellowship? Public housing may be a big problem for our society; but it is nothing in comparison to the need for love, forgiveness, a sense of humor, faith in God and in one another.

No marriage can last where one companion is the tool, the slave of the other; no marriage can remain Christian where a double moral standard is practiced, where a husband or wife decides that marital faithfulness no longer matters. Some observers claim that today's trend is toward a loosening of the marriage relationship and fidelity. The Christian home dare never surrender to this. The Christian person will stand against this tide.

Three practical suggestions that will help establish and maintain a strong and happy marriage:
1. A couple contemplating marriage should speak early to their pastor about their friendship, taking him into their confidence, as counselor and friend.
2. Let marriage begin with God as a partner, putting prayer and worship into the program of life.
3. When difficulties arise any time during marriage (and they will arise!), don't wait until a major operation is necessary before seeking help. Go to your spiritual advisor early in the matter.

What God hath joined together, God is anxious to keep together.

Fence-sitting isn't the safest occupation for the small fry, even if it is fun.

But fence-sitting for grown-ups is neither safe nor fun!

A man has to take a stand. He must let the world know his convictions. He must live them!

The principles in which we believe can perish while we dawdle uncommitted, uncertain, or unchurched.

Behind the iron curtain men who are determined to overthrow freedom and faith hide neither their communism nor their atheism.

Here in America on a Sunday morning; no man can afford to sit on the fence IF he believes in God, and in the right to worship Him in the Church of his choice.

DODGERS FACE BLAZING BUCS AT COLISEUM

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, fresh from a triumphant engagement in San Francisco, open tonight at the Coliseum, where the Dodgers lately have been producing hits like Rodgers and Hammerstein.

The Pirates, who took three straight in San Francisco and extended their league lead to four games, will run into a Los Angeles team that has hit .308 in its last 15 games — although it has lost eight of them.

Pittsburgh, a loser four of its first six times out against the Dodgers this season, will start its ace right-hander, Vernon Law. He has won 9 of 11 decisions and has a 1-0 record against Los Angeles.

Dodgers Use Williams
The Dodgers will respond with Stan Williams, the once-wild right-hander who has five victories and hasn't lost yet.

The chief agent in the recent resurgence of the Dodgers has been Wally Moon, who has hit safely in his last 12 games and driven in 22 runs in that stretch.

Moon drove in four Thursday night with a homer and a sacrifice fly as the Dodgers defeated Philadelphia 10-6 in a game that produced 29 hits, 15 of them by Los Angeles.

Same in Frisco
Similar agony visited pitchers in San Francisco, where the Pirates won 10-7.

The Dodgers, who moved into fifth place by beating the Phils, ran their league-leading home run total to 56, with Moon's shot over the left field screen and another three-run homer by Frank Howard. The Dodgers have hit at least one home run in each of their last 17 games.

The Pirates won two of three games in their first series here this year and dropped three straight to the Dodgers at Pittsburgh.

Cards Make Trades Before Deadline

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals obtained minor league outfielder John Glenn from the Los Angeles Dodgers Wednesday night in a trade for pitcher Jim Donohue and outfielder Duke Carmel of the Cardinals Rochester farm club.

Glenn, a righthanded hitter, is batting .314 for St. Paul, the Dodgers farm club. He will join the Redbirds. The Dodgers will assign Donohue and Carmel to St. Paul.

It was the Cardinals second trade of the night. They obtained veteran Walt Moryn from the Chicago Cubs for cash and a minor league infielder.

To make room for Moryn and Glenn, the Cards optioned outfielders Leon Wagner and Ellis Burton to Rochester on 24-hour recall.

College Track Stars Eye Rome

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Collegiate track stars — 489 of the strong and swift — opened competition today in the NCAA championships with sights set on the Olympics in Rome.

The top six Americans in each of the 17 events qualify for the Olympic trials at Stanford, July 1-2.

Athletes entered represent 113 schools with entries for individual events ranging as high as 87 for the 800 meter run.

Kansas, defending champion, ranks as the underdog to the University of Southern California.

The field includes seven who won titles in 1959, but only two are clear-cut favorites to retain their crowns — hammer thrower John Lawler of Boston University and javelin thrower Bill Alley of Kansas.

4 TRAPSHOOT ACES GET 99

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — With practice rounds out of the way, marksmen will settle down today to some gunning in the Pennsylvania Trapshoot Tournament at Fayette Gun Club here.

Practice rounds for the 16-yard shot, the 50-yard handicap and the 25-pair double competition were held Thursday as the first events in the four-day shoot.

Four men broke 99 of 100 targets in the 16-yard shoot to tie for top position. They were John W. Miller of Reading; Ross M. Blair of Pittsburgh; R. M. Hulings and A. S. Gotshall.

The 50-yard handicap saw five gunners tied with 8 of the 50 hits — Lloyd Jones, Betterson, Md.; Bert Maser, Jeannette; Ralph Taylor, Keedysville, Md.; William Worthington, Philadelphia, and Larry Conn, Pittsburgh.

Shamokin's Howard Lewis tied George McCullough by breaking 7 of 50 targets in the 25-pair double contest.

PRESBYTERIAN VIEWS STATED

GROVE CITY, Pa. (AP) — The United Presbyterian Synod of Pennsylvania Thursday took a swing at people who choose political sides solely on religious affiliation.

Closing out its 79th annual meeting at Grove City College, the Synod called such religious-based thinking "irresponsible citizenship."

The synod also approved a $385,000 budget for 1961. This is $77,000 higher than the 1960 total.

Top expenditure in the budget was $238,000 for support of Presbyterian-related colleges in the state. A total of $76,000 was set aside for on-campus instruction, $50,000 for church extension and $21,000 for the Pennsylvania Council.

CHINESE REDS TO GREET IKE WITH BARRAGE

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China announced today it will shell the Nationalist-held offshore island of Quemoy today and Sunday to mark President Eisenhower's visit to Formosa.

On June 17 and 19, Peiping radio warned, "A demonstration of arms against the United States—shelling to 'welcome and see off' Eisenhower—will be conducted at the Quemoy front."

A New China News Agency broadcast heard here declared: "This decision of ours is solely to make a demonstration against United States imperialism. For your safety, advance notice is hereby given."

The Communists have been shelling Quemoy sporadically on odd-numbered days for 20 months in accordance with a self-proclaimed partial cease-fire.

Presumably the broadcast meant the barrages would be heavier than the 10 to 60 or 70 shells usually fired by the Reds guns a few miles away on the Communist-held mainland.

The Communist shelling was not expected to cause undue alarm on Formosa, since the wording of the broadcast indicated the barrage would not be the prelude to an invasion attempt on Quemoy.

Island Is Strong
Since the Communists' massive artillery attacks on Quemoy in the late summer of 1958, the Nationalists have strongly fortified the island.

The Communist broadcast said the shelling would "show the great Chinese people's contempt and scorn for Eisenhower."

It said Friday and Sunday were chosen "in accordance with the ruling of shelling on odd days" and because Friday is the eve of Eisenhower's arrival in Formosa, 110 miles east of the offshore islands, and Sunday is the day of his departure for Okinawa.

HARRISBURG (AP) — State Highways Secretary Park H. Martin will discuss roads in western Pennsylvania at a meeting of the Upper Ohio Valley Development Council in Weirton, W. Va., June 23.

U. S. WOMEN EYE OLYMPICS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The coach of the U.S. women's track team in the 1960 Olympics says the picture is brighter this year than ever before.

"Our downfall is the lack of competition—national and international," said Ed Temple, who will build the Olympic team around his own Tennessee A&I Tigerbelles, who recently won their sixth straight AAU women's championship.

"Actually, we get better competition in time trials at A&I than anywhere else in the country." Temple figures the U.S. team might capture gold medals in the 100 and 200 meter dashes and in the 400-meter relay.

As for the foreign entries, he sees Australia first, then Russia, England and the United States, with the U.S. team having a "chance for third place."

Miss Judith Ann Weikert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Weikert, R. 2, left recently to attend the Goldkey Beacom Business School in Wilmington, Del. She is enrolled in the "Work and Study" course, in which she will work half a day and have school half a day. Her studies will extend until next April, when she will be graduated and recommended for a permanent position.

PHILS HURTING FOR TWIRLING

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The injury-ridden Philadelphia Phillies are down to six able-bodied pitchers and they're really hurting.

The pitching collapsed again Thursday night and the Los Angeles Dodgers belted the Phillies 10-6 in the series final.

Manager Gene Mauch was so hard pressed for pitchers he sent John Buzhardt to the mound despite a sensitive elbow.

The Dodgers finally got to Buzhardt (2-5) in the third, getting four runs, three of them on a three-run homer, by Wally Moon.

In the fifth inning the Dodgers added four more off Taylor Phillips. The key blow was a three-run homer by Frank Howard. Los Angeles picked up two more runs in the sixth before Humberto Robinson and Dick Farrell finished up.

Philadelphia, after being blanked by Johnny Podres (6-5) for five innings, scored twice in the sixth and chased Podres in the eighth during a four-run rally.

The Phillies garnered 14 hits—seven of them in the eighth—with Bobby Gene Smith getting three and Ken Walters, Frank Herrera and Jim Coker took each. Walters drove in three runs.

The Church of Sweden now has its first three women ministers.

HARTACK RIDES VICTORIA PARK

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Victoria Park, a romping winner of the Queens Plate in Canada last week, returns to action in the United States Saturday as the favorite for the $35,000 added Leonard Richards Stakes at Delaware Park.

Unless C. V. Whitney's Tompion or one of his lesser known rivals upsets the appellation, E. P. Taylor's Canadian-bred 3-year old should chalk up his first stakes victory of the year in the United States.

Bill Hartack, winner of the Kentucky Derby with Venetian Way and the Belmont Stakes last week with Celtic Ash, will be in Victoria Park's saddle.

Tompion, a disappointing fourth as the favorite in the Belmont Stakes, shapes up as the Canadian colt's chief rival in the 1 1/4-mile test. Other probable starters include Divine Comedy, Conestoga, Irish Lancer, Joy Joy, Topperdropper, Lisa's Gem and Incanto.

The Leonard Richards is one of Saturday's three feature races carded for 3-year olds. The others are the $40,000 added Chicagoan at Washington Park and the $15,000 added Ohio Derby at Thistle-down.

IT ONLY FEELS LIKE POWER STEERING

(Corvair doesn't need it)

Corvair's ingenious design simply places the engine in the rear. That means less weight on the front wheels and a lighter, happier feel in the curve of your hands. No power assist is needed in a car that's naturally nimble.

See what a fresh engineering approach can do? From handling and parking ease right on, there just isn't anything ordinary or conventional about Corvair. Look at its practically flat floor, four-wheel independent suspension, fold-down rear seat. Its air-cooled rear engine that never needs water or antifreeze or radiator repairs... and leaves engine heat and noise back where you've been. All these special advantages are standard in every Corvair. Just wait till you see how much they add to your driving pleasure. But why wait!

President Insists Arms Race Be Under Control

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
MANILA (AP) — President Eisenhower declared Thursday the arms race must be brought under control in an effort to eliminate "the nuclear menace that is poised in delicate suspension over the heads of all mankind."

Clearly referring to the collapse of the Paris summit conference and Premier Nikita Khrushchev's role in wrecking the parley, Eisenhower said:

"Communist intransigence at the conference table, whenever they do agree to sit at one, makes the attainment of an equitable agreement difficult. Moreover, the record of Communist violations is long. The continuation of Communist provocations, subversion and terrorism while negotiations are under way serves only to confound the difficulty of arriving at peaceful settlements."

"Boast Won't Come True"

In an address prepared for a huge public reception in Manila's Luneta Park, Eisenhower said some tyrannical governments "are blatant in their boasts of eventual supremacy over continents and even the world; constant in their boast that eventually they will bury all the systems of freedom."

The President assured his listeners that this Communist boast will never come true, declaring, "even in the lands that Communists now master with an iron rule, the eternal aspirations of humanity cannot be forever suppressed."

Eisenhower pledged anew that the United States "shall never close the door to peaceful negotiations" with the Communist nations.

No Appeasement

He also declared once more that he is convinced that the arms race and the nuclear menace can be brought under control "without appeasement or surrender, by continuing a course of patient, resourceful and businesslike dealings with the Soviet leaders."

The President said further: "We shall continue to make it clear that reason and common sense must prevail over senseless antagonism and distorted misunderstandings and propaganda."

"The goal of the world at peace in friendship with freedom is so worth the attainment that every feasible and honorable avenue must be explored. The support, understanding and participation of all who cherish freedom is essential to this noblest endeavor in history."

JAP POLITICAL CRISIS COULD HURT MARKETS

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The changing political weather in Japan could set off business reactions here as well as policy ones around the world.

That is because in these times business, whether it likes it or not, is closely tied in many ways to government decisions at home and abroad. And so, as a result, are jobs and incomes.

The stock market, industrial leaders and consumers in general will have a stake in what kind of government finally controls Japan and sets its relations with us and with the Soviet Union and China, and in what, if any, changes this brings about in the policies of the U. S. Congress and administration.

Japanese Markets

And a number of American firms have markets, factories, or both in Japan. Others here do a thriving business in importing Japanese goods. Japanese companies also have opened stores and other outlets here.

The collapse of the attempt at a summit meeting in Paris failed to upset business trends here because little had been expected from Paris anyway. But the crisis in the Far East might have more far-reaching results since it is a new thing.

The business tie-ins with the cold war change—if that's what the Tokyo rioting and cancellation of President Eisenhower's good-will visit brings about—will be first in the dollar and cents areas of defense spending and foreign trade policies, both exports and imports, and second in the psychological effects on consumers and stock traders and industrial planners.

Will Offer Industry

Whether defense spending goes up, and if so what lines will be favored, will affect the prospects of industries and companies in the view of Wall Street as to the value of their stocks.

Any big change in Japan could spur the protests of a number of American industries against competition from cheaper Japanese FAIRFIELD—Rev. Fr. John J. McNulty, pastor of St. Mary's Church, is attending the retreat being held this week at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg.

The Consistory of the United Church of Christ met Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Straup.

All young people from four to 17 years of age are invited to attend the Daily Vacation Bible School being held at the Iron Springs Brethren in Christ Church June 13 to 24 from 7 until 9 p.m. The bus will leave the post office at 6:30 p.m. and return at 9:15 p.m.

products. These run all the way from transistors to steel, from textiles to cameras.

On the psychological front the changes are harder to assess. Americans may shrug off the anti-American uprisings in Japan just as they did the Khrushchev insults in Paris.

But if the cold war seems more pressing now, Americans could decide that more must be spent on defense even if that means a return to Treasury deficits and further monetary inflation.

Businessmen could decide now, as they didn't after Paris, to change their inventory policies from the current hand-to-mouth one and start building up stocks. This could mean more borrowing, tighter money. But it also could mean more orders to suppliers, more industrial output, possibly more jobs.

Consumers could change their minds, too, from feeling that prices are fairly stable and decide now is a good time to buy rather than later.

The Far Eastern clouds could pass over, as other international clouds have. But for awhile they'll be watched closely.

NIGHT HUNGER IS BLAMED ON BRAIN CENTER

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Night eaters and binge eaters may be driven to obesity not by their stomachs — but by their brains and emotions, a researcher reported today.

The night eater is the fellow who rarely eats a meal before noon — begins in earnest at the evening meal and continues eating into the night.

He rarely speaks of being hungry — he just finds himself nibbling and he can't stop. Dr. Albert J. Stunkard of the University of Pennsylvania told a meeting of the American Medical Assn.

Can't Satisfy Self

The night eater's trouble is that he can't satisfy himself—not that he has such a tremendous hunger drive.

On the other side of the fence is the binge eater—a fellow with a great compulsion to eat and overeat. He consumes great amounts of food in relatively short periods of time.

His eating habits exhibit great hunger drives but he does seem to become satisfied or oversatisfied.

The difference between the two may lie deep in the control center of the brain—the hypothalamus.

Perhaps one area of the hypothalamus controls satiety—or satisfaction — tells you when you've had enough. Another area may determine the real urge of hunger.

This doesn't mean that the night eater's satisfaction control in his brain is irreversibly damaged. It's just that during periods of light stress, his satisfaction control is disturbed, and doesn't work properly, Stunkard said.

Things are different for the binge eater. It is his hunger control section that may be upset. Usually his eating binges are followed by remorse and self condemnation. The eating binges also come during periods of light stress.

POPULATION UP 6 PER CENT IN TEN YEARS

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pennsylvania's population increased six per cent in the past 10 years, according to complete preliminary figures from the 1960 census.

The tabulation, completed Wednesday, puts the state's population at 11,185,142 compared with 10,497,983 in 1950.

Edgar Bryan, in charge of most of the state census, said the figures are subject to change but that the final official count is more likely to increase than decrease.

STRIKES STILL BALK NATION'S MISSILE WORK

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A big strike and a small but crucial one ended on Thursday in the turmoil-wracked missiles and airplane industry.

At midnight more than 17,000 Douglas workers began to return to work at the firm's Long Beach, Calif., plant.

Earlier—at midnight in Florida—300 Convair machinists settled a 9-day-old strike at Cap Canaveral the International Assn. of Machinists said that action, however, was contingent on company withdrawal of a clause to permit layoffs regardless of seniority.

Still out are 10,000 Lockheed workers at missile plants in California—including the firm's Sunnyvale missile and space head-

NEW BOOSTER PASSES TEST

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—Saturn's superbooster has passed its first series of tests with flying colors, says Dr. Werner von Braun, Saturn project director.

The last in the series of nine static, or tied-down, tests was held Wednesday at the Marshall space flight center.

The next series is scheduled to begin in August and will be continued up to the time of the actual launching at Cape Canaveral, Fla., in 1961, von Braun said.

Saturn-T, the booster now being tested, will not be flown. This honor will go to Saturn-1, now being assembled at the space center. A third booster also is being assembled.

The booster is the first stage of the planned multistage Saturn space vehicle — this nation's brightest hope to put heavy payloads into space.

Still negotiating are 26,000 Convair workers in two unions. Threatening to strike are another 18,000 Douglas workers at two other Southern California plants: Altogether 70,000 workers of the IAM and the United Auto Workers are on strike, threatening to strike, or are just returning to work.

The Douglas settlement doesn't brighten the defense picture appreciably.

The Long Beach plant primarily builds DC-8 jet transports. The Lockheed strike cripples the Polaris submarine missile program and work on three important Air Force satellites, including high priority reconnaissance satellites.

One Douglas strike now impending, at Santa Monica, Calif., would halt production on the Thor missile.

The strikes were called to enforce contract demands. The unions asked hourly increases of from 14 to 17 cents.

At Douglas in Long Beach, the United Auto Workers settled Wednesday night for a two-year package of 11 cents — plus important fringe benefits.

IKE'S DEFERRED VISIT DELAYS U. S.-JAP PACT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Postponement of President Eisenhower's visit to Japan raised prospects today that Senate ratification of the new U. S.-Japanese security treaty may be delayed until action is completed on urgent pending bills.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, told a reporter the big defense money bill and a federal pay raise bill had priority over the treaty. He explained that both are hurry-up measures this near the end of the session because the money bill has to go to conference with the House to consider changes and the pay raise faces the possibility of a veto which would require further congressional action.

While Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee had been anxious to have the treaty ratified today in advance of the President's visit to Tokyo, the deferral of the trip removed that urgency.

Act Speedily

Fulbright said today that he still feels the treaty should be acted on speedily, but Johnson has not made a firm commitment as to the timing. Johnson told a newsman that consideration of the treaty would have to be fitted in with the other legislation.

Before the presidential visit to Tokyo was called off Fulbright had predicted overwhelming Senate ratification of the treaty.

In view of the Japanese developments, growing out of riotous demonstrations against the pact, there were some indications U. S. action might be held up to see what Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi's government will do.

Kishi served notice he would

Believe Victims Buried In Snow

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Most of the 14 persons who died in the crash of an airliner on an Alaska mountaintop were believed today to be buried in deep snow.

A six-man party flown by helicopter to the crash scene near the summit of 9,646-foot Mt. Gilbert said remains of only one or two of the nine passengers and five crew members could be found.

There was no chance that any of the others survived, the Alaska Rescue Council group added.

The four-engine Pacific Northern Airlines Constellation disintegrated Tuesday as it hit the tip of the peak and tumbled about 700 feet down its slope.

HALF MILLION LOSS IN FIRE

MIDDLETOWN, Pa. (AP) — A building used for storage of aircraft instruments and other equipment was destroyed by fire Thursday. Owners said the loss would exceed $500,000.

Firemen from Middletown, nearby communities and Olmsted Air Force Base battled the blaze three hours.

Fire Chief John L. Brubaker of Middletown said the flames fed on some of the instruments made of magnesium. He said the fire might have been caused by a spark from a wire being spliced, igniting packing material.

The concrete block building, on Route 230 a mile east of Middletown, had one story at street level and another below where the ground sloped downward.

Frank Furjanic, who repairs aircraft instruments at another location, had stored instruments in the upper floor. He estimated his loss at $350,000 to $400,000.

Ralph Colby, co-owner of the building, estimated damage to the building and some of his equipment at $100,000. A trucking firm occupied the lower level. Its loss was not determined immediately.

SEOUL (AP)—The South Korean government Thursday began preparations to move up the date of President Eisenhower's visit now that he is not going to Japan.

Gary Vanrew and William Miller, of New Franklin, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mark

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Vanrew, Saum at the H. B. Saum home.

Algerians Feel They Can Shape Nation's Future Without French Meddling

(This is the second article on the touchy Algerian problem. Today's installment presents the native outlook.)

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
ALGIERS (AP) — For Mohamed Driss, the Algerian problem is a constant and unrewarding search for dignity, recognition and a place in society.

He says the futility of his effort has driven him and thousands of other educated Moslems to dream of a day when they alone could shape Algeria's future.

"Love and fraternity between the French and Moslems consist of slogans and posters on the walls," Driss says bitterly. "As long as the deeds are missing, Algeria will remain in agony."

After a minute, he adds:

"Anyway, I think it is already too late. Five years of war have embedded deeply in my people the idea of nationalism and of a political solution to our problems. By now we have developed a craving to run our own affairs without the paternalism of the French."

Mohamed Driss is a senior clerk in the French administration of Algeria. The name is fictitious. Like most Algerians who talk to foreigners, he asked to remain anonymous and not to have his picture taken.

Constant Vacuum
Driss is a member of the French-educated Moslem bourgeoisie. He is a practicing Moslem but has adopted many ways of the French. His beautiful black-eyed wife does not wear a veil.

For Driss and thousands of other westernized Moslems of Algeria, life seems a constant vacuum.

"The French have given some of us the benefit of their education and their civilization," says Driss. "And then they show no interest in us, no friendship toward us. There is only one Frenchman whom I can call a friend. Others are polite but don't want to be seen with me or have me in their homes."

No Social Contact
Driss' statement is echoed by many Frenchmen here who worry about the future of French-Moslem relations in Algeria. Despite 130 years of French presence, there are no bonds and virtually no social contact between the two groups.

Driss admits that there are French settlers in Algeria who help Moslems.

"But that's paternalism," shouts Madame Driss, her eyes aflame. "We can do without it. Our civilization is older. The misfortune of history has made most of our people half-starved, primitive peasants. They have to be helped. But every time a Frenchman does something good for our people he does it with superiority and conceit which hurt our pride."

Fearful Of Problems
The Drisses do not advocate Algeria's complete and unconditional independence. Like most Moslem bourgeois, they are too attached to the French civilization. They are fearful of the economic problems which they believe would follow Algeria's independence.

They describe both the Moslem Nationalist rebels and Frenchmen demanding Algeria's integration with France as "extremists."

For Driss, the ideal solution for Algeria is an extensive home rule — with a Moslem government and economic and cultural ties to France.

He does not believe in a military solution to the Algerian war. Despite his criticism of a number of rebel leaders, he believes the rebels represent an important percentage of Algeria's population and should be consulted about the country's future.

Old Glory Gets New Star Next Monday With Pomp; Different From First One

By TOM HENSHAW
Associated Press Writer
Old Glory gets a new star—Hawaii—next Monday with all the pomp and circumstance reserved for a beloved grand dame on a very special birthday.

It's a lot different from the first one.

The fact is that no one can say for sure just how the flag of the United States came to be the Stars and Stripes in the first place.

Several Schools Of Thought
Did the design spring full-blown from the brain of some creative genius among the founding fathers? If it did no one ever stepped forward to take a bow for it.

Or did it evolve from some existing standard? There is enough evidence, real and fancied, to support several schools of thought on the subject. For instance, the tea party school.

When that defiant band of patriots climbed aboard the good ship Dartmouth in Boston harbor the story was that more than a cargo of tea went overboard with them.

Union Jack Out
They carried back to Boston the ship's flag, the standard of the British East India Company with its 13 alternate red and white stripes and the British Union Jack in the corner.

The same flag, or an identical copy, now known as the Cambridge or Grand Union flag, was raised over George Washington's headquarters outside Boston in 1776 as the national banner.

Naturally, after the Declaration of Independence was signed, the Union Jack on the American flag became intolerable and was changed to 13 stars. Or so the story goes.

First Documented Reference
Another school delects a similarity between the Star-Spangled Banner and Washington's family coat of arms, a shield bearing two horizontal red stripes and three red stars. The likeness seems strained.

The first documented reference to the Stars and Stripes came on June 14, 1777, when the Continental Congress resolved:

"That the flag of the United States be thirteen stripes alternate red and white, that the union be thirteen stars on a blue field, representing a constellation."

He says he has taken no part in any Nationalist activity.

Driss is convinced that the present French economic effort in Algeria, the proclamation of equal rights for Moslems and certain social improvements have been prompted by the rebellion. He says most Moslems share this opinion—and this is one of the factors which drives them closer toward the Nationalists.

Eighteen persons attended the recent York Springs Church of God Missionary Society meeting at the home of Mrs. Mildred Thompson, R. 2. After devotions by Mrs. Nellie Lerew, spiritual advisor, the Rev. Donald Roemer spoke on missions. A business session followed with the president, Mrs. Clyde Mansberger in charge.

Plans were made to gather articles to be sold for the benefit of Missions at the Boyertown camp meeting in July. Offering and sales amounting to $13.18. The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Mildred Thompson. Next meeting is planned at the home of Mrs. Blanche Crist, York Springs R. 2, July 8.

The regular June meeting of the York Springs WCTU was held recently at the home of Mrs. Anson Miller. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Edgar Leer. The meeting was opened by singing "Let the Beauty of Jesus Be Seen In Me." Scripture was read by Mrs. Donald Roemer. The prayer was given by Mrs. George Howe. Poems and articles were read. The business session followed including the request for each person to protest to their senator and congressman the use of alcohol on airplanes. The president requested that for the July

FOREIGN AID PROGRAM IS UP IN HOUSE TODAY

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—The shadow of the shattered Paris conference and Communist-inspired rioting in Tokyo hung over the House today as it met to decide how much money to give the foreign aid program.

The issue boiled down to this: Should the House go along with its Appropriations Committee and provide $3,384,500,000 to finance the program despite President Eisenhower's insistence that the amount is not enough?

Or, should it restore 250 million of the 790 1/2 million dollars cut by the committee from the amount Eisenhower asked for the fiscal year starting July 1?

Stands Reversed
There was no thought of trying to restore the entire reduction and the chances of putting back the 250 million appeared about even.

Republicans who in the past have led budget-cutting drives in the House found themselves in the position of advocating increases.

Pending when the House adjourned Thursday was an amendment by Rep. John Taber of New York, senior GOP member of the Appropriations Committee, to put back half the 400 million dollars cut by the committee from the two billion sought by the President for direct military assistance.

Amendment In Offing
In the offing was another amendment by Rep. Gerald R. Ford (R-Mich.) to restore 50 million of the 124 million trimmed from the original request for 724 million for defense support funds. Leading the drive for both meeting children make posters on regular size copy paper, either by drawing or cut out pictures, pertaining to safety, drink, health or cigarettes. This project, open to the public, will be judged for neatness and originality and will be separated into two age groups, ages 12 years and from 12 years up. Prizes will be awarded. A poem prayer was offered by Mrs. Hazel Miller. The July meeting, a covered dish supper followed by the meeting, will be held in the York Springs Fire Hall and will include the unions from the county. The date will be announced later.

amendments was Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, GOP floor leader.

"With the Communists having deliberately sabotaged the summit conference and having fomented rioting to block President Eisenhower's visit to Tokyo," Halleck told newsmen, "this is no time to let down our guard or soften our defenses in the free world."

Opponents of the amendments contended the extra money isn't necessary. If anything, they said, the summit failure and collapse of the planned Tokyo talks demonstrated that the foreign aid program isn't working too well.

"EMMY" SHOW MONDAY NIGHT STARTS AT 10

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Television honors its own this week. The No. 1 TV event will be Monday night's "Emmy" show (NBC, 10-11:30) when winners of Academy of Television Arts and Sciences awards will be announced.

Tonight NBC has an hour's report—8:30-9:30—of President Eisenhower's visits to the Philippines and Formosa. Edward R. Murrow interviews Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt and tells of that city's cold war situation in a "CBS Reports" special from 9 to 10.

Finals of the National Open golf championship pre-empt NBC's public affairs show Saturday (9-9:30 p.m.), with the cameras

Drama Sunday Night
Benny Goodman, singers Jane Morgan and Della Reese and dancers Ann Miller and Hailie, late of the Arthur Godfrey family, appear on the Ed Sullivan Show (CBS, 8-9) Sunday. NBC's weekly hour-long mystery (9-10 Sun.) is a new production of Gore Vidal's "Dark Possession," with Diana Lynn and Anne Seymour — a drama which has been done five or six times but is, apparently, still TV-worthy.

Monday night's Emmy awards show will be live from New York and Hollywood. Awards are based on balloting by members of the organization.

ABC's "Music for a Summer Night" on Wednesday (7:30-8:30) will be a tribute to the female of the species — with such performers as Signe Hasso, Geraldine Fitzgerald and Brenda Lewis. "The Secret World of Eddie Hodges," a musical fantasy, will headline Thursday evening's entertainment (CBS, 10-11). Co-star-

Highlights Of U.S.-Jap Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) —Here are the main points in the Japanese-American security treaty:

1. Each party recognizes that an armed attack against either one in Japanese territory is a danger to both, and promises to act accordingly in line with its constitutional process.

2. Japan grants bases for U.S. land, air and sea forces, without time limit, for the purpose of contributing to Japanese security and maintaining peace in the Far East.

3. The parties will separately and together develop their defense capabilities, and will consult from time to time and at the request of either party whenever Japanese or Far Eastern security is threatened.

4. The parties undertake to settle peacefully any international disputes in which they are involved.

5. The parties will strengthen their free institutions, promote stability and collaborate economically.

6. The treaty will supersede the 1951 U.S.-Japanese treaty and will remain in force for 10 years and indefinitely thereafter until one year after either party gives notice of intent to terminate the treaty.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Applications for gasoline tax refunds are scheduled to be mailed to 44,227 Pennsylvania farmers next week.

State Treasurer Robert F. Kent, chairman of the State Board of Finance and Revenue, said, however, farmers should include all agricultural gasoline purchases for this month on the application before returning it to the board for approval.

SEOUL (AP) —Acting President Huh Chung has become interim premier under South Korea's new system of government. The duties of the presidency, now a ceremonial post under a constitutional amendment adopted Wednesday, passed to National Assembly Chairman Kwak Sang-hoon. He submitted his resignation from the assembly to keep Huh as chief of state also, but the assembly deferred action on the resignation.

Huh will serve as interim government head until elections for a new assembly before July 30.

Dr. William Sebastian Hart

Founder and Musical Director of Gettysburg Symphony Orchestra

SUNDAY, JUNE 19, 12 NOON

When Johns Hopkins University Presents Prize-winning TV Program Johns Hopkins File 7—"Euterpe and You"

In This Educational Program Dr. Hart Explains The Symphony—The Gettysburg Symphony Orchestra . . .

Dr. William Sebastian Hart, a member of the faculty of Peabody Conservatory College of Music in Baltimore since 1939, was for 20 years a first chair musician in the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. He was Conductor for Baltimore's Bureau of Music for 11 years, Special Instructor of Instrumental Music in Baltimore Public School for 12 years, and has been musical director and contractor for some of the world's greatest attractions—such as ROYAL DANISH BALLET, LONDON INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL BALLET, operas and dramatic plays.

As musical director and commentator he is a well known radio and TV personality. His 55-minute weekly radio program, CONCERT HALL, is heard in several American cities 32 weeks per year. Dr. Hart is the founder and musical director of America's newest professional symphony orchestra—the GETTYSBURG SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA of 80 players.

Dr. Hart is a member of:
American Musicological Society
Renaissance Society of America
American Association of University Professors
National Association for Music Therapy, Inc.

Dr. Hart was born in Baltimore and began the study of the piano at age 7. He is an honor graduate of the Peabody Conservatory of Music, majoring in Percussion. He has received an award for French Horn at Peabody.

Dr. Hart holds the Bachelor of Arts degree (major: Political Science) from Johns Hopkins University; the Doctor of Philosophy degree (major: Psychology) from California Golden State University; the Doctor of Music degree from Allen University, Columbia, South Carolina.

His radio and coast to coast TV appearances, plus his writings published in the INSTRUMENTALIST Magazine together with his compositions for solo percussion instruments make him well known to musicians and students in the U.S.A. Others know him as an excellent teacher and musical director with the courage and energetic drive to found an orchestra worthy of the name in today's hectic world.

Dr. Hart is listed in:
Who's Who in American Education Vols. XVIII and XIX
Symphony Conductors of the U.S.A.
Directory of American Scholars, 3rd Ed.
1957-58 supplement to Who's Who in America
